THE WORD

Have you ever felt as though you were in a cloud, when life was foggy and you couldn't see ahead? When I drive through dense fog or have brain fog, I can barely see to move ahead. What relief when the skies clear! I want to hold onto those clear stretches, but often more fog is on the horizon.

Peter, James, and John are with Jesus at most key experiences in his life. They want to hold on to this Transfiguration experience. But "a cloud came and cast a shadow over them" (Luke 9:34). Frightened, a clearing comes when they hear God's voice: "This is my chosen Son; listen to him" (9:35). They fall silent, as we can when presented with such clarity.

Abram was in a cloud. The Promised Land was too long in coming and too far ahead. He wants a sign. The sign? God asks him to make a covenant, a contract between equal parties. He does as he is asked, and, at the close of day a trance, a deep terrifying darkness, overtakes him. Only by entering that cloud of darkness does he find the sign he seeks. He hears God's promise to him and his descendants. To find clear skies or safe havens, we often must drive through the fog.

Life can seem like an endless succession of clouds and fog. When we experience clear signs and stretches of clear sky, we want to hold onto them for dear life. Lent invites us to remember those stretches to stand firm in the Lord. God will bring us through fog to clarity and through darkness to light. Be silent before the One who is with us at all times, who says, "This is my beloved daughter, my beloved son. Listen and be transfigured!"

- Describe an experience of God, Jesus, or the Spirit that changed your life.
- Name a time when you entered the clouds and fogs of life and found clarity and hope.

Mass Intentions

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead, and the greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each; only one offering per Mass. All Mass intentions will be listed in the bulletin. We are in need of daily Mass intentions. Please contact Mike Agriesti by regular mail, or drop a note into the collection basket on Sundays or email admmike@columbus.rr.com to schedule a Mass.
